

Diego started playing tennis at a young age in his native Venezuela. He quickly became a top nationally ranked player and was very successful throughout his junior career. Later on, he had the chance to compete with top players from all around the world on the ITF and ATP Futures and Challengers circuit.

While playing competitively, Diego discovered a true passion for coaching and decided to focus on pursuing a tennis coaching career. He spent his early years as a coach learning, receiving mentorship, and polishing his skills working with some of the most recognized coaches in the business, enabling him to incorporate all this past on knowledge into his own coaching style.

As a professional coach, Diego has had the chance to travel the globe coaching world class ITF juniors, top college players, WTA and ATP players from all corners of the world. His students have competed in top national and international junior competitions, NCAA tournaments and Tour events including Grand Slams.

Over the past few years Diego has focused on directing, managing and staffing tennis and athletic programs in clubs in South Florida and Northeast Summer Camps, bringing not only a fresh perspective and the latest teaching methodology, but also top notch trained and certified staff to enhance the tennis experience in these facilities.

Besides being an accomplished Tennis Director, High Performance Coach and mentor, here are some of Diego's notable achievements and Certifications:

- USPTA Elite Professional
- USTA Net Generation Professional Coach
- PTR 10 & Under Professional
- PTR 11 to 17 Professional
- PTR Adult Development Professional & Tester
- Etcheberry Fitness, Strength, Conditioning & Movement Coach
